

you got the property the 11th day of September, 1939, is that correct ?

A That's correct.

Q Will you tell me what transpired with regards to the property from that time?

A After I got the property Mr. Blickenstaff had it rented to Mr. Gladhill, and I was to get the rent until spring, the time I was to have possession. If he did not pay the rent it was to come off of the $100 that I still owed Mr. Blickenstaff, or any other expenses were to come out of that in getting possession of the property. Mr. Gladhill paid me no rent, and I had to dispossess him to get possession of the house, and the hearing was held before Mr. Manuel Weinberg as Magistrate, and Mr. Gladhill was represented by Mr. Bennett, and Mr. William Storm represented me. And the Magistrate gave a decision in my favor that he was to move, and Mr. Bennett asked me to give him 30 more days to get a house or start building a house at that time, and that if he did not move at that time that we could have him put out, but Mr. Gladhill did move. So I taken the amount of the rent that I did not get and the cost of getting possession of the property off of the balance that I owed and gave Mr. Blickenstaff a check for the balance that was owed. This was the second payment, after I had taken off the rent and expenses of getting Mr. Gladhill out.

Q Instead of putting the check in evidence in this case, which I don't believe is necessary, would you to state in dollars and cents the amount of it?

A The first payment was $300.

Q Made on what day?

A September 11, 1939.

Q And the second check?

A The second check was March 31, 1941.

Q And how much was that?

A That was $42.00. And the checks were marked "Paid in full."
